Confidence Building Cross Country – in 2 steps!

Instructor: Heather Lewis BHSAI BHS Int SM

These sessions have been designed to give both horse and rider confidence to jump some solid fences.

Our Instructor is very keen that anyone wanting to do these sessions has a really good time, so would not pressure anyone to jump anything they weren't sure of.

Venue:

Session 1

Lower Peake
Warnford
Hampshire
SO32 3LA

Session 2

Lower Peake
Warnford
Hampshire
SO32 3LA

*Lower Peake is a turn off of the A32, it does not have a sign out front, however there are 2 bright yellow bollards where you need to turn down, opposite these is a sign saying Beacon Hill Cottages.

Session 1 – Saturday 17th October

In the outdoor school – a simulated lesson on cross country riding using show jumps, with focus on technique for the more complex jumps - corners, angles, bounces, skinnys, etc. It is definitely not about how high you can jump! We also focus on pace and the correct x-country position. Even those horse/rider combinations who do not want a competitive jumping career will benefit from the obedience side of riding at a specific pace, or staying straight enough to jump angled rails with ease! After the ridden session (1 hour) there will be a chat (approx 20 mins) with Heather regarding any queries you may have for session 2, this will cover things like bits, boots and safety equipment so you are prepared for your second lesson.

Session 2 - Saturday 31st October

On the cross country course at Lower Peake (minimumus, shortened course available) building confidence, riding over fixed obstacles using what you learnt in the previous school session.

- The first group for each date will be 10.00am
- Please ensure your e-mail address is sent back with your form as times will be e-mailed by the Wednesday prior to the lesson
- Please note that due to the time of year, if the weather is bad, we may not be able to use the XC Course, you will be contacted if this looks likely. We do have the option of using the outdoor school instead on the 31st October.

Please make cheques payable to Solent Riding Club
